Youth Choir - Wednesday at 6:00 p.m.

This could be the easiest way to become involved in the Walnut Hills Worship Arts Department. Singing shouldn't just be done in the car by yourself, but should be shared with others. This is a singing group that will practice and perform dynamic and fun music designed just for teens.

ADULT ARTS - VOCAL

Celebration Singers - Thursday at 7:00 p.m.

The Celebration Singers is a group of singers of every skill level and representing many different walks of life. It is truly a group for anyone who likes to sing. The ensemble rehearses to perform during 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. Celebrative Worship and for the many diverse programs throughout the year.

Specialty Choirs - seasonal

The Specialty Choirs are three separate ensembles divided into the three liturgical cycles of the year: Christmas, Easter, and Summer. The Summer Choir was the first to introduce the idea of a low-commitment, come-as-you-are ensemble at Walnut Hills. If you aren't ready to take the plunge into a full year commitment with the Celebration Singers, please consider joining the next upcoming Specialty Choir.

Drama League - seasonal

Worship has the power to transform those who attend. Drama during worship has the ability to help those in worship understand what the scripture is telling us or what the minister is preaching about. This is a great group for translating words into actions. Acting can cause a powerful reaction to what is happening in worship.

ADULT ARTS - INSTRUMENTAL

Ringmasters - Thursday at 6:00 p.m.

An energetic bell group, the Ringmasters is the largest bell group at Walnut Hills. All adults and youth are welcome in this group. No musical background is required! Carl Johnson leads this ensemble in a wonderful assortment of musical styles and sounds.

Tinntinabulators - Tuesday at 6:00 p.m.

This is an advanced bell group open to all who have spent time in the Ringmasters. Music is quickly prepared for beautiful and technical presentations during the Sunday morning worship. Directed by Lynelle Meyer, this group will surely stretch your musical limits.

Celebration Ensemble - seasonal

Every now and again, the Celebration Singers need an accompanying orchestra, or brass quintet, or woodwind group, or jazz ensemble. If you proficiently play an instrument, you are welcome to join this ensemble. This group will meet periodically to practice fun and vigorous music to perform with the Celebration Singers.

WORSHIP ARTS ACTIVITIES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Sound Crew

The Sound Crew is a group of dedicated men and women willing to set up, tear down, and run sound equipment from the sound booth in the back of the church. All sound people are on a rotational schedule.

Songleaders

If you enjoy singing in front of people, then you might be just right for songleading at the 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. Celebrative Worship services. Each songleader is responsible for learning their week's songs and leading the congregation.

Worship Pianists

A great way to share your talent of piano playing is to become a Worship Pianist. There are two sets of ivory to tickle and each Sunday provides a bright, new chance to share the talent that you have taken the time to develop.

Walnut Hills Has Talent

Every year the Worship Arts Department puts on a show. In the past, many have shared their talent during A Night of Disney, A Night of Broadway, and a mixture of different acts. A dinner is served one year, and on the opposite year, a silent auction is held. If you have a hidden talent, please sign up to be a part of this exciting and fun tradition.
